Soviet Army Gives Ground But Keeps Its Front Unbroken

BY JAMES M. LONG
Associated Press War Editor

The Russian army, giving ground but keeping its front unbroken, was hammered back today into the big bend of the Don river, where the Germans' deepest drive into Soviet soil carried the swastika war flag within 200 miles of the Volga in a sweep toward the Caspian Sea that would cut off the Caucasus.

In Egypt, however, bayonet fighting Australian infantry which bolstered the British Eighth Army kept the Germans on the defensive, pushed 10 miles west of El Alamein, badly blunting Field Marshal Edwin Rommel's potential threat to the Caucasus from the south.

Adding the thunder of its big guns to the battle of Egypt, the British navy bombarded Matruh, most advanced Axis supply base on the North African coast, 170 miles west of Alexandria.

Sweeping close inshore, units of the fleet which the Axis boasted had been driven from the Mediterranean raked the harbor last night with terrific salvos which left the waterfront ablaze.

FUTUO ISLAND RECAPTURED BY CHINESE

Kai-Shek's High Command Reports Smashing of New Japanese Threat to Vital Port

SECOND FRONT URGED

By the Associated Press

Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek's high command declared today that the Chinese had recaptured Futuo Island, just off the Fukien province coast from Foochow, smashing the newest Japanese threat to one of the biggest ports still in Chinese hands.

The Japanese seized the island last Thursday, but were driven off Saturday, a Chinese communique announced. It said fighting still was in progress northwest of Wenchow, in Chekiang province, the second of the two big remaining Chinese ports. The Japanese yesterday claimed that they had occupied Wenchow.

Fighting continued inland in Kiangsu province, where the Chinese said the Japanese were rushing up reinforcements in an effort to save 30,000 of their troops hemmed in by the Chinese between the Kan and Fu rivers.

Free China's leading newspaper, Ta Kung Pao, called upon the United States to bring the war to a turning point this summer or autumn by opening a second front in Europe, starting a naval offensive against Japan, and turning the full power of her air force upon the Axis in Europe and Asia.

The newspaper said talk of a second front so far recalled a Chinese proverb: "There is plenty of noise on the staircase, but nobody comes down."

NEW WARNING ISSUED TO FUEL OIL USERS

Washington, July 13.—(P)—Retail fuel dealers in the eastern seaboard states were urged by the Solid Fuels Office today to undertake advertising and publicity campaigns asking fuel oil users to convert their furnaces from oil to coal at once and order their coal now.

In a letter to the Retail Dealers' Association, acting Director Howard A. Gray of the fuel office said there were indications that consumers were not fully aware of the seriousness of the fuel situation. The government has warned that an adequate supply of heating oils can not be guaranteed for next winter.

Fluke Causes Only American Loss At Raid on New Guinea

Somewhere in Australia, July 13.—(P)—Lieut. Gen. Grainger of Miami, Fla., told today how the only American plane lost in a raid July 4 on Lae, New Guinea, was knocked out of the sky by a Japanese Zero fighter whose pilot apparently was already dead.

"Our tail gunner, Private Pat Norton of Hartford, Ill., had poured about 100 rounds into the Zero's left wing and cockpit," said Grainger, navigator aboard a medium bomber which participated in the raid.

"The Zero seemed to jerk downward and the pilot to jerk upward. Then the pilot slumped down at the controls. The Zero careened crazily and would have hit us if our pilot, Walter Kreil, of Berkeley, Cal., hadn't banked sharply.

"The Zero swerved upward, hung there a moment and then came down in a steep dive. We yelled a warning over the radio to the rest of the formation but I guess the last plane either didn't see the Zero or didn't have time to get out of the way.

"The Zero dove straight into the fuselage and cut clean through the tail.

"The Zero itself was smashed to pieces. The bomber kept on its course for a few seconds and then, after a wobble, went into a spin and plunged into the sea."

PRICE FIXING LIMITATIONS ARE OPPOSED

Restrictive Amendments in Appropriation Bill Are Severely Criticized By Henderson

Washington, July 13.—(P)—The price control appropriation went before the senate today with a warning by Leon Henderson that price fixing limitations sought by farm groups would cripple an important part of the anti-inflation program.

The limitations are contained in a $1,856,000,000 supplemental appropriations bill, for war agencies. The bill includes $120,000,000, tied down by a series of restrictive amendments, to finance a year's operation of the office of price administration which Henderson directs.

Henderson's main criticism of the bill was directed against an appropriation committee amendment to prevent the OPA from fixing prices on any commodity made in whole or in part from a farm product unless the price reflected 110 per cent of parity.

Henderson said the farm price restriction would force repeal of the general maximum price regulations because it would require studies on thousands of items of food, clothing and industrial products before ceilings could be set.

Senator Wagner (D-NY) asserted in a broadcast last night that the appropriation for Henderson's office was the most important issue on the home front.

"Every grasping landlord, every speculator in war materials and consumers' goods, every producer reaching out for undue profits at the nation's expense is today ganging up on the OPA," Wagner said.

Another issue was the 2½ cents a gallon increase in gasoline (Turn to Page Seven)

Terrorists In France Given Stern Threat

Vichy, July 13.—(P)—The Germans announced today in Paris they would shoot males over the age of 18 years who are members of families accused of terrorism or sabotage.

This applies to "all near male relatives in the ascending line as well as brothers-in-law and cousins." Women of the same degree of kinship will be sentenced to hard labor and children of adults thus punished will be sent to reform schools, the announcement said.

A notice issued by the gestapo director overnight to the press in the occupied area said:

"After having observed the attitude of the French population in the occupied zone I have noted that majority of the population is continuing to work in calm. Terrorist attacks, sabotage, etc., instigated by the English and Soviets are disapproved of and it is known that it is only the peaceable French population which suffers the consequences.

"I am resolved to guarantee to the French population in absolute fashion, in the midst of war, continuation of its work in calm and security but I have noticed that above all it is close relatives of the authors of terrorist attacks of saboteurs and troublemakers who help them before and after the deed.

"I therefore have decided to make use of the most severe penalty not only to strike at perpetrators of terrorist attacks, saboteurs and troublemakers themselves after they are arrested but also, in case of escape, as soon as the (Turn to Page Seven)

London Gives Story Behind Danzig Raids

London, July 13.—(P)—The new potency of Britain's air campaign to drive the U-boat from the seas by smashing Germany's replacements before she can get them into the water is the story behind the RAF's sensational daylight raid on Danzig Saturday.

That neither daylight, distance nor foul weather deterred squadrons of British bombers from sweeping low over Germany on a 1,750-mile roundtrip in daylight showed that the Nazis are exposed now to night air assault anywhere and at any time.

The attack on Danzig cost but three planes and unofficial indications that this was less than five per cent of the attacking force meant that at least 60 bombers made it.

Flying no further than to Danzig, RAF planes could reach almost any city in Germany, strike into Poland almost to Warsaw, hit Italy almost to Rome and hit targets in western Slovakia, Hungary or Yugoslavia.

By its stroke, the RAF expelled Danzig from Germany's list of "safe" cities. The Germans had been making the most of its U-boat building facilities but now neither it nor other remote industrial centers are beyond the RAF's long arm. Danzig had been hit only once before, on the night of Nov. 10, 1940.

Two Dead In Train Wreck

Pittsburgh, July 13.—(P)—Two trainmen were killed early today when 15 runaway freight cars crashed into a tender and locomotive on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad main line between Gibsonia and Bakerstown, Allegheny county.

The victims were Engineer Blanchard H. Jones and Fireman David S. Stiegers, both of Ponsu-tawney.

The train crew had detached the 15 cars from a 41-car freight and hauled them to the top of a steep grade with the locomotive.

The engine had just returned to the main line from a side track for the remaining boxcars when the runaways rolled down the hill. Six boxcars were wrecked, strewn the tracks with wheat. The tender was overturned and the locomotive blocked.

The wreck blocked the main line for several hours.

Greatest Sea-Borne Trials Are Completed by Canadians

Philadelphia, July 13.—(P)—The state supreme court ruled today that there was no Democratic nomination for congress from the eleventh district in the May primary because of the death of Rep. Patrick J. Boland on the day before election.

Boland received the largest number of votes of any candidate for the office. The state Democratic committee now will name the candidate for the fall election.

The case reached the supreme court on an appeal by Patrick McLane, who ran second in the race, from the action of the Lackawanna county common pleas court in upholding the county board of election, which had held that a vacancy existed in the Democratic nomination.

The supreme court also pointed out that Rep. Boland's death was given wide publicity in newspapers in Lackawanna county and broadcast by radio and became generally known to the voters of the eleventh district when they cast their ballots at the primary.

Boland received 18,465 votes while McLane got 7,095. The third candidate, Walter Dembrowski, received 3,731 votes.

McLane was ordered to pay the costs of the appeal.

TEXAS NEGRO LYNCHED IN COTTON MILL

Colored Man Accused of Attack on White Woman Is Taken From Hospital Cot by posse

SHERIFF HAS NO CLUES

Texarkana, Tex., July 13.—(P)—Sheriff Monroe Watts said that Willie Vinson, 25-year-old negro suspected of the attempted rape of a woman, was taken from a hospital by a group of men and hanged early today to a winch at a cotton gin outside the city.

Watts said the condition of the negro's body indicated it had been dragged behind an automobile before being hanged, but there were no bullet wounds other than one received when Vinson was captured early Sunday morning in a cafe where he was employed.

Vinson had been tentatively identified by the woman involved.

The sheriff declared he had investigated the lynching but had made no arrests and had no clues.

"The nurses in the hospital didn't get a good look at them. It happened so quickly," he said. "Nobody seems to know who they were."

Vinson was employed as a dishwasher in the cafe.

The attempted rape was the third in this community this month.

Two other negroes had been picked up as suspects in yesterday's rape attempt and were placed in the Boston, Tex., jail. Watts declared they would probably be released as the woman said neither looked like the man who had molested her.

The woman, wife of a worker in an ordnance plant, was reported dragged from her trailer-camp bed early Sunday by a negro who clapped his hand across her mouth. She was sleeping beside her 19-month-old son. Her husband was at work.

The sheriff said the woman began screaming when her assailant tried to drag her to a wooded section. She wrenched free. Neighbors ran out and the negro fled. They chased him down the street into a cafe, the sheriff related, where a fight followed. Vinson, the sheriff said, picked up a butcher knife and one of the men in the cafe shot him in the stomach.

"The negro," he added, "was taken to a hospital. Today a little after midnight some fellows came to the hospital. Vinson was on the lower floor, like a basement. I don't know how many were in the party or how many cars they had, but only three went into the hospital. The men weren't masked or armed."

Nurses notified officers. Sheriff Watts said he went to the cotton gin and cut the body down.

The sheriff said he took the woman to the hospital yesterday to look at the negro and quoted her as saying that "he looked like the man."

German Saboteur Trial Resumes

General Myron C. Cramer, judge advocate of U. S. War Department (right), questions FBI Agent Demman about a shovel, part of the evidence in the trial of eight German saboteurs, in Washington, D. C. (Official U. S. Army Signal Corps Photo)

Washington, July 13.—(P)—The arrest of 14 alleged associates of the eight Nazis standing trial for their lives before a military commission was announced today by Attorney General E. A. Tamm.

Biddle said that the group included six women and that the 14 persons were the "immediate contacts" of the German agents who landed on Long Island and Florida coasts from German submarines last month.

At the same time, Director J. Edgar Hoover of the Federal Bureau of Investigation said that the arrests had been made in Chicago and New York during the last three weeks and that the investigation of their activities, and of other possible contacts, still was underway.

Those announced in custody were: Helmut Leiner, Astoria, Long Island, N. Y.; Anthony Cramer, New York; Miss Hedwig Engmann, New York; Hermann Heinrich, Erie, Astoria, Long Island; Mrs. Maria Kerling, New York; Ernest Herman Kerkhof, New York; Hans Max Haupt and Mrs. Haupt, Chicago; Harry Jaques and his wife, Emma, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Otto Richard Vergin, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wilhelm Froehling, Chicago.

"The individuals apprehended," Hoover said, "are known to have given shelter to the saboteurs after their arrival in New York and Chicago and to have furnished them assistance which would have aided the foreign agents in their sabotage activities in the United States. One of the individuals assisted by purchasing an automobile for the use of one of the (Nazis) agents in transporting the explosives and other material recovered by FBI agents on the Atlantic shore on Long Island and Fla."

Hoover added that suspects helped also by concealing part of the $176,000 recovered by the FBI when the saboteurs had brought to this country. Several of the persons changed bills of large denominations for the agents in order to divert suspicion, he declared.

Although all 14 of these individuals were aware of the arrival of the eight saboteurs from Germany on a secret mission," Hoover said, "none of them made any attempt to report the information to the FBI or any other authority."

Guard Against Lodge Praises Modification U. S. Soldiers Of Tax Bill Now in Africa

Washington, July 13.—(P)—Senator Lodge (R-Mass.), reporting on a tour of active army duty in Africa, told his colleagues in the senate today that American soldiers had performed like veterans and their tanks had stood the test of battle well in the Libyan desert fighting.

"I came home convinced that we have an army which can do big things—historic things," declared the youthful senator in his first appearance in the senate since his return to Washington. Lodge was dressed in a conventional white suit, instead of the major's uniform he had worn for months and which Secretary of War Stimson has asked him to lay aside to return to his legislative duties.

Lodge related how an American tank detachment, which he described as a "token force," had engaged Axis forces in the period of June 11 and June 12 on a ridge south of Tobruk.

"Our soldiers fought the enemy in M-3 tanks," he said. "There was heavy fire from enemy guns. There were, however, no penetrations."

"Our boys registered direct hits on a number of German tanks" (Turn to Page Seven)

Committee of House to be Asked to Approve Plan to Avert Amendments

Washington, July 13.—(P)—The house ways and means committee decided today to surround its new $6,250,000,000 tax bill with enough safeguards to prevent any modification when presented to the house for debate and passage this week.

Despite the one-vote margins and even the votes by which many decisions were made, the committee agreed to ask the rules committee to approve procedure which would preclude all amendments except those minor revisions which might be drafted by the committee itself.

Thus, beginning Thursday, the greatest revenue bill in the nation's history could be discussed by the entire membership but not modified.

Bearing the approval of all but five of the 25 committees, the bill fell $2,450,000,000 short of Secretary Morgenthau's $8,700,000,000 tax goal. It would impose taxes of about $2,485,400,000 on corporations, and personal income taxes totaling $2,958,000,000.

For individuals, the committee decided to increase the normal tax from 4 to 6 per cent and to raise the present 6 to 7 1/2 per cent graduated surtax rates to 13 to 87 per cent. It adopted a collection at the source provision by which 5 per cent of an individual's income would be deducted from paychecks and pay envelopes beginning in January.

Lockard is Given His Commission

Fort Monmouth, N. J., July 13.—(P)—It's Second Lieut. Joseph L. Lockard now.

While his bride stood by during a broadcast ceremony, the 20-year-old Williamsport, Pa., youth received his commission yesterday—one of Uncle Sam's rewards for his unheeded warning of the approach of enemy planes at Pearl Harbor last Dec. 7.

Lockard had completed a three-months course, interrupted by several weeks of illness, at officers' candidate school here. Brigadier General George L. Van Deusen, post commander, presented the diploma and Lockard was assigned to the army signal corps.

The former sergeant's hometown sweetheart and bride of several months, the former Pauline Seidel, was at his side as the Columbia Broadcasting System broadcast the ceremony over a nation-wide network. His father, George Lockard, a war worker, was unable to attend.

Army Games Are Launched

Wadesboro, N. C., July 13.—(P)—U. S. Army wartime maneuvers got under way in the Carolinas today with an admonition by the director that "this may be the last dress rehearsal before the shooting for keeps starts for many of you."

"No part of warfare will be omitted in the activity which will include two new phases—air-ground and the final clean-up action," said the maneuver director, Maj. Gen. E. J. Dawley.

Cooperative planning of infantry action on the ground and in the air is necessary, General Dawley told the officers, for successful combat operations.

The maneuvers, operating on a 24-hour basis, will prove also that the training being experienced now is the beginning of preparation that is continued abroad, the general said.

The maneuvers do not involve as many troops as those of a year ago—before the United States entered the war—but it was pointed out that the activities would be more important because developments on the foreign fronts had been incorporated into the training program.

Pipeline From Texas Planned

Washington, July 13.—(P)—Northern terminus of a $35,000,000 oil pipeline from Longview, Tex., will be Norris City, Ill., war Production Board officials disclosed today.

From Norris City a smaller pipeline would be constructed, they said, to Mount Vernon, Ind., a loading point for barge shipment of oil up the Ohio river to the eastern shortage area.

The 24-inch main line is scheduled to start delivering oil by December 1. The branch line running to Mount Vernon probably will be 14 inches in diameter and capable of handling 115,000 to 120,000 barrels daily.

The pipeline is expected to reduce the tank car shuttle time from 18 days to ten days in delivering vitally-needed oil to eastern centers.

Private Firms Reaping Large Profits From Rubber Salvage

Washington, July 13.—(P)—Elmer E. Simpson, an independent rubber dealer who is counsel for a house subcommittee investigating the rubber situation, charges that "four large scrap rubber firms have reaped enormous profits from the country's scrap rubber drive."

Simpson, in a statement released yesterday, said:

"The four companies which have been appointed as the sole reserve agents are H. Meuhlschein and Company, Inc., A. Schulman, Inc., Nat E. Berzen, Inc., and the Loewenthal Company. All four have branches extending from coast to coast, and all four are due to obtain tremendous profits from this deal."

The Rubber Reserve Corporation is a government subsidiary of the reconstruction Finance Corporation.

Simpson said the four companies he named "are being granted 'commissions' of $1.50 on every ton of scrap rubber which is collected for the Rubber Reserve, whether or not they were instrumental in collecting the scrap. On top of that, they are paid a considerable sum for sorting the scrap once its in their warehouses. But the greatest bonanza of all will come after the scrap is sorted, after such items as crepe soles—worth $462 a ton—are separated from run-off-the-mill grades."

County Salvage Committee Is Disappointed Over Results Of Rubber Collection Drive

PAMPHLET AVAILABLE

It was announced this morning at the Chamber of Commerce office that any retailers who failed to receive a copy of the pamphlet entitled "What Every Retailer Should Know About the General Maximum Price Regulation" will be supplied with a copy upon telephone to the Chamber office. (Telephone—4701).

In the distribution of these pamphlets that was made on Thursday and Friday of last week, some business establishments were inadvertently omitted. The distribution of these pamphlets to the North Warren retailers will be made tomorrow.

The rubber drive in Warren county, recently terminated, was an unqualified failure according to an opinion expressed this morning by the Warren County Salvage Committee. "Although gas stations cooperated fully; although the county was flooded with the greatest volume of publicity since the war began, both local and national, the results were extremely disappointing," said B. S. Knabshue, co-chairman of the central committee.

Neighboring counties, both in New York and Pennsylvania, far outstripped Warren county in the response of all sections, both urban and rural. Venango county's total collection is estimated at 225 tons. Crawford county's at 250 tons, and Chautauque county's at more than 300 tons. In contrast with these bumper crops, Warren county lagged badly behind with an estimated total of not more than 91 tons, including rubber already collected and that still in the hands of service stations.

This result is in sharp contrast to the very satisfactory response to the original campaign for scrap metal and other forms of salvage material during April and May, when Warren county equaled or surpassed most of its neighbors in per capita collection, and placed well forward among all counties in Pennsylvania. The salvage committee is particularly disappointed in rubber results in view of the extreme importance of this commodity to the national war effort.

Inquest Held In Fatality Here July 2

At an inquest held Friday afternoon at the court house here, a coroner's jury, inquiring into the death of William J. McCowin, 67, on July 2, found that he came to his death from a fractured skull and body injuries causing hemorrhages when he was struck by a car operated by Frank W. Amacher, Jr., at 12:15 a. m. on that date, on Pennsylvania avenue, east, near the intersection of Carver street.

The verdict, which was reached after nearly an hour of deliberation following nearly three hours of testimony, also contained the statement that "we, the jury, feel that the accident may have been avoided, had the said operator, Frank W. Amacher, Jr., been exercising more care and caution at the time."

Twelve witnesses were called. They included Dr. T. K. Larson, Mrs. Floyd Dickinson, Mrs. Frank Chimenti, Frank Gernonto, Dillies Winerter, John Reynolds, Claude Littlefield, Mrs. Claude Littlefield, Officers Geary Bean, Gordon Munn and Gerald Conboy, of the Warren police department, and Frank Amacher, Jr.

Jurors were L. E. Seavy, T. G. Jacobs, H. J. Jones, A. J. Burhen, C. J. Kuchartz and G. F. Wholen. The inquest was conducted by Coroner Ed C. Lowrey.

Attorneys at the inquest included District Attorney J. H. Goldstein, representing the commonwealth; E. H. Beshlin, representing the McCowin family, and William Glassman, representing Amacher.

The annual picnic of the Warren Foremen's Club will be held Saturday, July 18, at Island Park, Youngsville, beginning at 2:30 p. m., it was announced today. The picnic is one of the outstanding events on the club's calendar and is always well attended and much enjoyed.

This year's picnic will be a basket affair, with the club furnishing the coffee, ice cream and lemonade. The officers of the club, Hyman Roos, George Atkins, Ray Ledebur and Emil Ristau, have general charge of the picnic, assisted by the entertainment committee consisting of the following men: Chris Pepke, C. Ray Lewis, Gunnar Lundmark, Robert Swanson, Richard Loper and Emil Ristau.

One of the features of the program will be a mulligan game between the Struthers-Wells Corporation and a team composed of foremen from the Hammond Iron Works and the Pennsylvania Furnace and Iron Company. The committee in charge consists of Harold Dietsch, Paul Ristau and Arnold Flick. There will also be a mulligan game between the ladies and the men.

Evening Ceremony in Trinity Church Unites Miss Romaine Meacham-Dr. Francis Ericsson

At eight o'clock Saturday evening in Trinity Memorial Episcopal church, Romaine Meacham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Burritt Meacham, 12 Crescent Park, became the bride of Dr. Francis S. Ericsson, Third avenue, son of Mrs. Louis F. Ericsson, of Ridgway. Ministers officiating were Rev. G. Hall Todd, of Niagara Falls, N. Y., and Rev. E. Pinkney Wroth, rector.

Miss Jean Robertson played a recital of wedding music and the traditional Wagner and Mendelssohn marches. The bride's gown of white faille taffeta with peplum and overskirt of white tulle, was full skirted and had sweetheart neckline and three-quarter sleeves. Her fingertip veil was caught to a Juliet cap with orange blossoms and her bouquet of white roses was centered with a white orchid. She was given in marriage by her father and attended by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Emil Meacham, of Alexandria, Va., as matron of honor, and Miss Joan Van Alstyne, of Cambridge Springs, as bridesmaid. Their frocks of aqua faille taffeta had sweetheart necklines and bouffant skirts and their flowers were red roses. The Misses Anne Crosssett and Susan Robertson, cousins of the bride, were flower girls. They wore pink frocks and carried small baskets of red roses.

Four Camel Caravans... complete road shows for men in uniform

750 performances to 1,000,000 and more soldiers, sailors, marines, and coast guardsmen as this goes to press

JULY 31, 1941! That's when the Camel Caravans hit the road. And they've been at it ever since: a day in some camps to audiences of 15,000 to 20,000.

Yes, it seems you can't find a military scene anywhere without Camels in the picture... cigarette or show. Or both. And both seem to have won top rating with the men in all the services. According to applause and letters from morale officers, the shows are a "smash hit!" And according to sales records, the cigarette is a "smash hit," too. The top-ranking favorite in P.X.'s and Canteens.

STEADY NERVES... that's the order of the hour. Whether you man a gun or a machine... whether you sit a jouncing jeep or knit a sweater... you'll appreciate Camels more than ever these days. They have the mildness that counts!

Important to Steady Smokers:

THE SMOKE OF CAMELS
contains LESS NICOTINE

than that of the 4 other largest-selling brands tested—less than any of them—according to independent scientific tests of the smoke itself!

R. J. REYNOLDS TOBACCO COMPANY, WINSTON-SALEM, NORTH CAROLINA

ARMY CAMPS write: "... Express to you thanks for splendid entertainment by the Camel Caravan... production was excellent... Very happy experience to find a 'soldier' show that did not 'play down' to its audience. Thank you, Gentlemen, it was a pleasure and a privilege!"

SURE, free cigarettes, as well as a free show, are part of the fun when one of those 4 big Camel Caravans rolls into camp. Camel's famous full, rich flavor, coolness, and extra mildness also "take a bow."

DON'T THROW IT AWAY

The people of the nation, down to the last forgotten man, are being drafted for a war job to which every individual can contribute.

Beginning today we are all asked to help with a renewed expanded and intensified salvage campaign, designed to help make up deficiencies in raw materials.

There is nothing spectacular in the contribution we are asked to make thus to the war program; nothing dangerous; nothing arduous. In fact, there is nothing verging upon the sacrificial.

All the government asks is that we pick up things we do not use and do not need, but which war industry does need, and turn them over so they can be made into weapons and munitions for the use of our fathers or sons, our brothers or cousins or neighbors on the fighting fronts against Hitler and Hirohito.

Unlike some previous civilian war enterprises, this one is clean cut and crystal clear. Operating details may differ from city to city and town to town, but there is no question about what is wanted—or why.

Tin is needed, because our normal sources of tin have been cut off. Therefore residents in 36 selected communities are asked to save their tin cans, clean them and remove paper, cut off tops and bottoms, flatten them out, and leave them for the tin can collectors.

From these cans the tin will be removed. The drive is limited to 36 centers because elsewhere there are no facilities for detinning the cans.

Scrap steel is needed, because without that we can not operate our vital steel-making plant to capacity and produce the maximum of metal for ships, tanks, guns, planes.

Rubber is needed for reclamation, to stretch the inadequate stockpile of virgin gum, both for military use and to help get war workers to and from their jobs.

Fats and greases are needed to stimulate production of glycerine, which in turn will be made into explosives.

Housewives are asked to save kitchen fats and sell them to local meat dealers, who will send them back through trade channels until, transformed, they get to Germany and Japan.

This salvage drive isn't a temporary, one-week spurt, says Lessing Rosenwald, its director.

It's something to be kept up day after day, week after week. But that doesn't mean it's something to be put off until tomorrow or next week.

The quicker our soldiers and sailors get armaments and munitions, the sooner we'll have them back home with us — and the more of them we'll get back.

WAR DAMAGE INSURANCE

When the forms come from the printer, Uncle Sam will sell us war damage insurance at 10 cents for each $100, so far as dwellings and household contents are concerned.

Because of constitutional obstructions, this insurance cannot be made universally mandatory. All the government can do is make it available and hope that we are smart enough to buy it from the private insurance agencies which will act as representatives for Washington.

One can, if he chooses, decline to pay this moderate charge. Then, if his home is destroyed, he can ask for charity.

Conceding that we aren't going to be bombed or shelled like the British, it still would seem the part of discretion to take a slice of this insurance.

News of the sudden passing of Miss Hettie Butler at her home in Third avenue Friday night was learned with profound sorrow by a host of friends in the community who will miss her smiling personality at the Warren Bank & Trust Company, and in other circles where she was active.

The delightful mid-summer weather Sunday attracted many citizens to the parking areas in and about the borough which are at their prettiest at the present time.

Friday night's downpour proved a great disappointment to a host of grownups who had planned to attend the circus on the South Side.

T-H-O-U-G-H-T-S

Rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the Lord your God: for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil. — Joel 2:13.

Forgetful youth! But know, the Power above with ease can save each object of his love, wide as his will, extends his boundless grace. —

WASHINGTON IN WARTIME

By JACK STINETT

WASHINGTON—Among all the war-time food shortage stories floating about, one of the most surprising is the one about bananas.

The obvious lead, of course, is to quote that song ballad of some years back: "Yes, We Have No Bananas." Which is now exactly the truth. But I wouldn't have known anything about it if I hadn't gone shopping one day when the dearth of fruit had affected local groceries.

Finally, I got around to, "How about bananas?" The clerk said,
"Oh, yes, we have bananas. Here is a delicious one, almost over-ripe. I can let you have it for 15 cents. The smaller one, slightly green, you can have for a dime."

THAT was the first time I had slipped up on bananas. It was quite a blow. Back in the pre-war days, my Old Man (he was 18 then) worked the green-apple trick on bananas. He ate two dozen of them on his way home to dinner on the back platform of a Chicago trolley. He was so sick he didn't know where to get off.

So are the banana growers of the Caribbean today.

The story comes from the Department of Agriculture and the National Geographic Society.

In the first place, except for its food value (it is very rich in carbohydrates and minerals), the banana isn't important to war. Its shipping is. The 100-plus ships that have comprised the banana fleet are now doing service elsewhere. The result: Billions of bananas ripening on the trees—

"green gold" turning to worthless dry rot—on more than 3,000,000 acres in the otherwise useless tropical swamps of Jamaica, Mexico, Honduras and Guatemala.

New Orleans, formerly the greatest banana port in the world, isn't a banana port at all any more.

It is hard to conceive of the tragedy this war has brought to the banana growers in Good Neighbor countries to the south.

THE banana is a strange fruit.
It doesn't grow on a tree, but on a plant. Its tight, woody leaves form a trunk which shoves the single-stem fruit as high as 30 feet from the ground. It thrives where man suffers most. In the humid, fever-ridden swamps of the tropics. Although brought into this country from Asia 24 years after the arrival of Columbus, it was still a tropical curiosity (single bananas wrapped in tinfoil) at the Philadelphia Centennial in 1876. By 1910 it had become a national staple.

In 1937, the peak year, we imported more than 10,000,000,000 bananas on 66,587,000 stems.

MAN ABOUT MANHATTAN

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—The members of the cast of "Claudia" gave themselves a sort of Gibson Girl carnival the other evening. For the 500th performance of Rose Franken's comedy they dressed in the styles of 500 months ago, or as of Nov. 1, 1900. This meant quite a few changes in props as well as costumes. The telephone-eavesdropping scenes required installation of an old style wall telephone with goose-neck transmitter and a crank to call the operator. And Dorothy McGuire found that throwing herself on her stomach on sofas was a little different in mutton leg sleeves and high collars plus Gibson girl skirts from the easy attire of 1942.

One of the pleasant anomalies developed by this change concerned Audrey Ridgwell, who, as the sister-in-law Julia, had to make sudden changes in her lines.
Line-changes were forbidden, but in the prime costume of 1900 Audrey simply couldn't bring herself to say, "Come to cocktails sometimes, Mr. Seymour," so she said, "Come to tea," and in doing so she became slightly mixed up and added, "Mr. Tea-mour."

For this one performance the programs were printed on yellow paper in the old-style lingo of 40 years ago. The synopsis of the scenes referred to "A fateful Friday evening in Early Autumn," and "Next day: Impending Danger Lurks."

Donald Cook wore a fancy square derby and a green checkered suit. Frances Starr's picture had featured a cascade of peaches, apples, and flowers.

Lefty Larry French, has turned out to be one of the biggest baseball bargains since the Indians turned loose the islands of Manhattan.
The Brooklyn Dodgers picked up French for the waiver price of $7,500 late last season and the 33-year-old left-hander hasn't been beaten since.
He won his tenth game of the year yesterday, holding the Pittsburgh Pirates to three hits for a 2-1 decision in the first game of a doubleheader.
The Dodgers lost the second game 6-4 and watched their National League lead shrink to eight lengths, but French reached the halfway mark in a season of the promises to be his best in the majors.
His best previous year was 1936, when he won 18 and lost nine for the Chicago Cubs.
If French continues his pace, he may cost the Dodgers plenty by October, for he has a trick contract calling for a salary based on the number of innings he pitches and the number of games he wins.
The St. Louis Cardinals drew one game closer to the leaders by whipping the Boston Braves, 5-1 and 9-3, the first on a two-hit pitching job by Harry Gumbert.
Walker Cooper led the Cardinals assault in both games, hitting a home run, three doubles and a single in seven times at bat.
In the American League, the first place New York Yankees also divided a double bill but boosted their lead to four and a half games with the help of the St. Louis Browns.
While the Yankees were using to the Detroit Tigers, the Browns pinned a double defeat on the second place Boston Red Sox, 1-0 and 10-6.
Johnny Vander Meer tossed a three-hitter at the Philadelphia Phils as the Cincinnati Reds captured both ends of a bargain bill. Vandy struck out 13 men in winning, 2-0, Elmer Riddle pitched six-hits for the Reds in the nightcap to win 2-1.
At Chicago, Lon Warneke made his first appearance since returning to the Cubs and was whacked soundly by the New York Giants, who captured the opener, 6-2, but the Cubs bounced back to square accounts, 8-3.
The Cleveland Indians took both ends of their twin bill from the Washington Senators, 9-7 and 5-0.
The day's best pitching performance in the American League was turned in by Jake Wade, who held the Philadelphia Athletics to three hits and contributed three blows himself as the Chicago White Sox took the second game, 11-1. Roger Wolff pitched five-hit ball in winning the first game of the A's, 3-2.

Country Club Golfers Split Two Matches

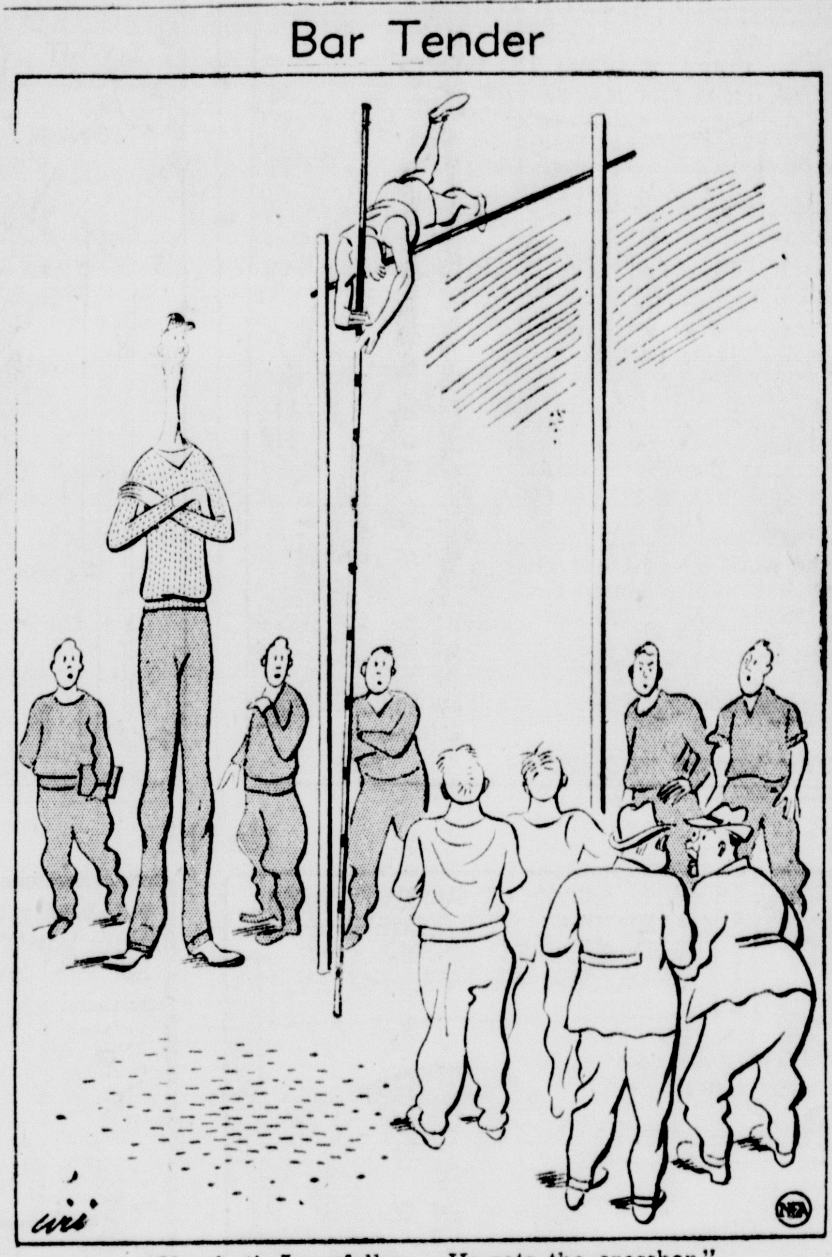

After being beaten by a team of Titusville Country Club golfers by a 25-7 count on Saturday, the Conewango Valley Country Club linksmen redeemed themselves with an impressive 13-3 triumph yesterday against the Publix team chosen from the area's top-flight independent club golfers.
The match was played over the country club course beginning at ten o'clock in the morning and ending about two o'clock in the afternoon.
Johnny Pawk defeated Bill Rice and combined with Chink Collins to capture best-ball honors from Rice and Bittenbender, and Stan Korb won over Johnny Trevenen to give the losers their only points in the match, but from start to finish it was an interesting affair and another such event may be scheduled for late August or early September.
The scores: J. Brindis and J. Brindis lost to Tim Creal and H. Hubbs, 3-0; Collins and Pawk topped Bittenbender and Rice, 2 to 1; Howard Johnson and Bob Walsh lost to Chuck Young and Art Johnson, 3 to 0; C. Christensen and George Johnson lost to Al Michell and Neil MacDonald, 3 to 0; Stan Korb and Bob Johnson lost to Trevenen and Bob Ritchie, 1 to 2; and Sam Brindis lost to Chuck Blackman, 0 to 1.
A point was given each individual winner over the 18-hole distance and an additional point was awarded for best ball in each four-some.

EAGLES FACE Four Softball SWANSONMEN Games on Tap THIS EVENING In City Loop

A postponed game from Friday night included, this week's Sunset League card will offer local baseball fans plenty of their favorite sport and some of the contests loom as tops in entertainment.
The Eagles and the Hospital open the program this evening at 6:15 o'clock on Russell Field and both teams are out for a triumph.
The Flock won its first start in the second half, edging Stoneham by a 2-1 count last Wednesday evening while the Hospital clubbers dropped a one-sided 15-2 verdict to the Forge Thursday night.
Tomorrow evening the Forgers and Stoneham are scheduled to play their contest which was postponed by weather from Friday evening, and Wednesday night will find the Hospital in action again against the Stoneham nine.
Either Thursday or Friday of this week the Forge and Eagles pair off in what shapes up to being quite a fracas if the Flock maintains its present pace and can top the Swansonmen this evening.
The Forge-Eagles game is not yet definite as to time of play though it is scheduled for Friday. The Forge has requested that the contest be moved ahead to Thursday evening to allow their players to be free on Friday night, the only night off for the defense workers.
Agreement to the shifting of this contest must be made by Manager Louis Casses, Jr. of the Eagles and his decision is expected today. According to league rules, a game must be played as scheduled unless agreeable by both teams to alter the playing schedule.
Sparky Pollock is expected to take the mound for the Eagles to night with DeRosa or Rose slated to do the hurding for the Swansonmen.

BANK SHOTS

BY FLOYD PASSINGER, Sports Editor

When the National Forge diamond dusters tore into the Corry Merchants a week ago yesterday in the nocturnal tilt at Corry, a humorous incident occurred which took a roundabout way coming back to this community where, now it can be told. It seems that midway through the game Russ Cassett, doing a relief chore on the mound for the Merchants, struck a Forge batsman preceding Manager "Emmy" Morrison at the plate. Along came "Emmy" and Cassett's first pitch hit Morrison on the left leg. Thinking it was an intentional throw, "Emmy" picked up the ball and hit it out over the right field fence onto the schoolhouse roof amidst a chorus of boos and laughs. It wasn't so funny as far as the Forge plot was concerned however, because he's bothered considerably by varicose veins in that leg, and has been as a result of being struck by Cassett's pitch. Eddie Burns and Pinky Caffery made their farewell appearance in the Irvine lineup yesterday and did themselves proud as they said goodbye to some loyal fans, friends, and their fellow players. Caffery tossed a nifty bit of ball while Burns, though he went hitless, drew a pair of walks, scored one run and made two heat putouts in centerfield. Caffery, it might be added, managed to get a pair of base knocks in four times at bat. And it'll be a job replacing these to mainstays in the Irvine lineup, you can be sure. Ball hawks like Burns don't happen along every day, and Pinky was the ace of the Forgers' mound corps. Disappointing note to this department was the fact that the boys weren't feated by their mates and by the fans in their last outing at Wilder Field. From the writer goes best wishes and lots of luck to both.

Six home runs have been seen in the Sunset League in 14 games and yet no individual player has more than one. Hajnik, Massa, Brown, Martin, Pollock and Creola are the boys who've hit for the walks, scored one run and made two heat putouts in centerfield. Caffery, it might be added, managed to get a pair of base knocks in four times at bat. And it'll be a job replacing these to mainstays in the Irvine lineup, you can be sure. HOSPITAL IS DEFEATED BY VIKING NINE "Rabbit" Swanson's State Hospital nine blew a five-run lead Saturday afternoon as they dropped an 8-5 decision to the Jamestown Vikings on the North Warren diamond.

Jim Rose started on the mound for the Swansonmen and held the enemy scoreless until the sixth when four runs were plated after two in the first and three in the fourth had given the Hospital a five-run margin.
In the seventh, the Vikings rapped the offerings of Rose and Johnny Kane for two more scores and added two off Kane in the eighth to close the scoring.
Bob Schussler entered the game in the ninth and set the winners down in order but was called on too late to stem the tide.

Sharon Westinghouse No Match For Irvine; Routed By 13-1 Count

The Westinghouse Club of Sharon brought a skeleton team of only ten to Irvine yesterday and found they needed a whole battalion of Uncle Sam's fighting men as the National Forge ran roughshod over a mediocre opponent by a 13-1 count.
The score might have been from three to seven runs higher but it was evident after the third inning that the Irvine clouters were putting the cap on their powerhouse attack.
Pinky Caffery, who like Eddie Burns was making his last appearance in a Forge uniform before joining the armed services, fanned 12 batters and gave up only five hits in his nine-inning workout during which time he never was troubled with any threats to the lead.
The Forge jumped on two Sharon pitchers for six hits and as many runs in the first innings, added two more in the second and again in the third, and finished out with two in the seventh and one in the eighth for their total of 13.
Three successive hits in the third accounted for the only run plated by the visitors.

THE "GLAMOROUS ESTHER"
Someone named the preserved mummy of a cliff-dwelling Indian girl, discovered in a cave near Durango, Colo., "Esther". This 1700-year-old maiden is known to tourists all over the United States as the "glamorous Esther" and is now located at Mesa Verde National Park.

DON'T CALL WASHINGTON unless you must!

With the war effort of 27 United Nations centered upon it, Washington is probably the busiest city in the world. It is fast outgrowing its physical limits—and its telephone facilities.
During 1940 and 1941, Long Distance telephone traffic in and out of Washington had been growing at a tremendous rate. And since Pearl Harbor, it has jumped another 50%! Calls of vital importance sometimes get caught in the crush.
New construction would normally take care of the increased load. But copper, rubber and aluminum are more critically needed for the fighting fronts.
So we must ask you to cut down on every possible Washington call—so that Army, Navy and Government can have clear "talk-tracks" to get America's biggest job done.
As far as possible, avoid all Long Distance calls not directly related to the war effort.
If you must make a Long Distance call, place it in the off-peak hours—12 noon to 2 P. M. 5 P. M. to 7 P. M. 9 P. M. to 9 A. M.
These suggestions, offered especially for calls to Washington, also apply on calls to all other cities busy with war activity.
Please restrict the number and length of local calls, too, especially from party-line telephones.

SWIFT SWEDE

Forty-eight hours after lowering world mile record to 4:06.2, Gunner Hagg of Sweden with 8:47.8 cut 8.2 seconds off Miklos Szabo's recognized two-mile mark and 5.4 off figure hung up by Taisto Maki.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

Essential in the equipment of every Soldier, Sailor, Marine or Flyer is a first aid kit, consisting of bandages and antiseptics for instantaneous use. These materials are packed into a compact box and cost about $1.50 each.

We need millions of these first aid kits for emergency treatment. They are also used by Red Cross workers, in field hospitals and wherever needed until hospital treatment may be obtained. Even a child could buy one or more of these kits through purchase of War Stamps. Buy War Bonds and Stamps every pay day and invest at least ten percent of your income in these government securities. Youngsville Church Group Holds Picnic

Youngsville, July 10—The Youngsville Church group held their annual summer picnic on Island Park Wednesday afternoon. The delicious luncheon of the day was prepared and served by the ladies of the church. The picnic was a membership contest extending through some months and concluding at the previous meeting. An interesting program and social time was enjoyed under the direction of Mrs. Vivianne Gililand.

FALSE ALARM

Youngsville Volunteer Fire Company answered a false alarm Thursday afternoon about five o'clock, making a quick run to Poplar street and then looking in vain for a house on fire.

The alarm was turned in when someone observed dense smoke and flashes of fire on a chimney of a house from which the residents had recently moved. The explanation was simple, someone cleaning the cellar was burning waste articles in the cellar furnace.

FARM NEWS

Harrisburg, July 10—(P)—Pennsylvania's farm crops are 10 days to two weeks ahead of the season because of favorable weather conditions, the Federal-State Crop Reporting Service asserts.

The service lists these crop highlights:

Wheat is being harvested in southern counties and fields.

Barley yields are generally good. Oats in the southern area are turning and some loss is expected because of rust and lodging.

Potatoes are growing well but weeds and replanting may affect the harvest.

Hay making has been retarded by wet weather which has also reduced the quality. Yields are good but much of the first cutting is still to be made, held up by rain.

Planting of late cabbage is underway and a scarcity of plants is reported in some sections.

Pennsylvania's juvenile farm labor battalion—boys and girls fresh from classrooms who are voluntarily taking the places of older workmen called into service or working in defense plants—is swinging into action.

Some 400 boys and girls over 14 are picking cherries and beans in the Adams County fruit and vegetable belt, while in other sec-

MRS. MURDOCK TAKES A CASE

by George Harmon Coxe

Chapter 19 Start Of A Plan

JACK FENNER was waiting at one end of the lobby, and came forward to meet them, a slender, trim-figured man with a look of sinewy toughness about him that his loose-fitting balmacaan could not hide. His hair was gray-black and smoothly combed, his mouth was thin and even and his agate eyes slanted a little in Tatar fashion so that his glance assumed a perpetually narrowed expression.

There was a lot of tight-muscled energy in the set of his neck and shoulders, the light, sure-footed way he carried himself suggested that he could move swiftly and expertly whenever the occasion demanded.

Joyce introduced him. He smiled and gave Delia a quick, absorbing glance.

"Care for a drink?"

"Why—I don't believe so, thanks."

"Well"—Fenner turned his hat in his hand and grinned—"would you mind sitting with me, then? I don't listen so well on an empty stomach."

Delia looked at her companion, but Joyce merely smiled and nodded.

"All right," she said. "We don't mind. Shall we go in the merry-go-round?"

They walked down the long corridor and turned into the cafe. Fenner refused to give up his hat and coat, and when they had found a table for four, he tossed them across the odd chair.

"Three Scotchies," he told the waiter.

"Not for me," Delia said. "Let him bring them," Fenner said. "They won't go to waste."

They lit cigarettes while they waited, and when they had been served, Fenner drank briefly, said, "Ah!" and crossed his hands on the table, giving his attention to Joyce but keeping Delia in relative focus so that when he wanted to look at her he had to move only his eyes.

"What's the story?"

"We want you to work for us," Joyce said bluntly.

A faint smile touched his lips and something happened to his eyes. They did not move, nor did the lids, but there was something bright and steady in their depths that had not been there before.

"Kent know?" he said.

"Shouldn't he?"

"Not this time."

"What's my story when he comes around to see me some day and says what's the idea of working for my wife behind my back?"

"Kent's a pretty good friend of mine."

"I know," Joyce said. "You won't be working for me, really, but for Miss Stewart."

"Does he know Miss Stewart?"

Fenner asked, not looking at her. "Of course."

"He's a pretty good detective himself."

"This is personal, Miss Stewart would rather have an outsider."

"That right, Miss Stewart?"

Delia moistened her lips, hesitated, said: "Yes."

The Story

FENNER summoned the waiter and ordered another Scotch. Without realizing it, Joyce had already sipped some of her drink, but Delia had not touched hers; now she pushed it towards the detective.

"I don't want it, really," Fenner smiled and took the glass, then noticed that the waiter seemed undecided about accepting the order. "Scotch," Fenner said. "Who's going to tell me?" he added, when the waiter went away.

"I will," Joyce said and mentally edited her account as she went along. "Miss Stewart is engaged to Ward Allen. Do you know him? Well, it doesn't matter. . . . Did you happen to read about the murder of Perry Clarke?"

"I saw the account but I don't know the details," Fenner said, and his eyes were sleepy-looking as he put down his glass.

"I don't imagine the details are important," Joyce said. "What is important is that Perry Clarke had an envelope that contained some clippings about Ward Allen—about some trouble he once had, the sort of thing he wouldn't want to get around."

"And Clarke was blackmailing him."

"I don't know that it had gone that far, but—" Joyce glanced at Delia and knew there was something else she should say. "Before I tell you the rest of it, there's something I've got to ask. Miss Stewart didn't want to come to you, but I knew we needed help and advice. I told her about you. I said I was sure you wouldn't talk to the police."

"I couldn't promise," Fenner said. "But the only way the police can make me talk is to involve me in the murder and put me on the stand."

"If it came to that," Joyce said, "what you might have to say wouldn't matter anyway. . . . You see, Delia? But to get back, Miss Stewart knew there was something that Ward Allen wanted and she did something silly. She went to see Clarke at his apartment last night."

Fenner Has A Hunch

JOYCE paused here to make sure she did not explain too much, aware that Fenner was taking in every word, every inflection.

"While Clarke was out of the room making a drink, she found the envelope. He didn't discover this and she came away, and not until this morning did she know that Clarke had been murdered."

"Tonight a man came to her and demanded the envelope."

"What man?"

"She doesn't know."

Fenner's glance slid to Delia and something in it compelled her to speak.

"I never saw him before. He said he thought I had the envelope and unless I gave it to him he'd see that the police found out I'd been to Perry Clarke's apartment just before he was murdered."

"Any idea how he knew about you?"

"None," Delia said. "Unless he had been watching the apartment."

"What'd you tell him?"

"I told him I didn't know anything about it."

"So?"

"So he said he'd give me until tomorrow noon."

Fenner finished Delia's drink and started it on the fresh one. He lit a cigarette, absently forgetting to pass them around and said nothing until he had inhaled.

"If you tell him it's no dice he tips off the cops about you, huh? And if you play along your boy friend may be in a jam, is that it?"

"Yes," Delia said.

Fenner's eyes swiveled to Joyce. "You must have had some sort of an idea when you telephoned me."

"Not an idea," Joyce said. "I just figured that Delia will have to give him the envelope. So I thought perhaps when the man telephoned she could make a date and perhaps you."

She paused and Fenner smiled at her. It was quick and genuine, that smile, and it changed his whole face. There was a note of respect in his voice when he answered.

"Maybe you came to the right guy after all," he said. "It's as good a hunch as any I'd get, and it might work."

TWO MORE SHIPS ARE ADDED TO U-BOAT TOLL

By the Associated Press

The reported sinking of a Dominican schooner and of a small Panamanian merchantman, one of whose survivors was given first aid treatment aboard the attacking submarine, put at 362 today the unofficial Associated Press tabulation of Allied and neutral ship losses in the western Atlantic since U. S. entry into the war.

Both new sinkings occurred in the Caribbean, that of the sailing craft Carmen being reported from Ciudad Trujillo, Dominican Republic, as having taken place yesterday, and the Panamanian being announced by the navy as a recent torpedo victim.

Philadelphia, July 13.—(P)—The father of Tommy and Jimmy Dorsey is dead.

Thomas F. Dorsey, Sr., a self-taught musician who gave his orchestra leader sons their early training, died yesterday in Friends Hospital. He was 70.

Family tradition had it that Dorsey, a former bandmaster in the Pennsylvania anthracite regions, used to hang his brass instruments on Tommy's crib and that the child tried them out as teething rings.

The military trial of the eight Nazi saboteurs who landed from u-boats was resumed on schedule today for its fifth session with a member of the defense counsel reporting that he had no idea how long it would continue.

There was no evidence from outside the walled up corridor on the fifth floor of the justice department building as to who might be appearing before the commission of several generals, although it was known that a federal agent resumed the stand first for conclusion of cross examination begun during the protracted session Saturday.

The only persons seen in the hall were members of the prosecution and defense staffs, heavily laden as usual with brief cases, folders and bundles of documents. Some messengers from the FBI wheeled in a load of papers on a small cart.

Chang Chiang-ai, China's communication's minister, announced that war supply deliveries to China are continuing over air lines to the outside world—largely through India—and said the capacity of these lines compares favorably with the flow of supplies China received over the now-closed Burma road.

Chinese circles said invading Japanese have rounded up approximately 5,000,000 Chinese laborers in occupied North China during the past five years and herded them off to Manchukuo and Japan to ease a labor shortage. They said the Japanese now are trying to conscript 2,000,000 more through arrests and other pretexts in connivance with the puppet government at Nanking.

Man Is Held After Crash On Route Six

An Endeavor woman is in the Warren General Hospital and a St. Marys man is being held for court on an intoxicated driving charge as a result of an automobile accident which occurred Saturday evening at 9:05 o'clock near the River Road Service Station at the intersection of routes 6 and 39.

In the hospital is Mrs. Sadie Hunter, 76, of Endeavor, who is suffering from cuts on the forehead, injuries to her arms and a sprained leg. Her condition was reported as good today.

Being held for the next term of court under $500 bond is Henry Thornton, 51, of 375 Call avenue, St. Marys, who was arrested by Pvt. K. W. Leeper, of the state motor police, after the accident.

According to Leeper, the accident occurred when a Ford coupe being driven east by Thornton, struck a westbound Oldsmobile coupe driven by Dr. I. G. Hyer, of Clarendon. It was stated by the officer that Thornton was in the act of overtaking and passing another car on the curve at the intersection when the accident occurred.

Mrs. John Thornton, 69, of Brookston, who with Mrs. Hunter, her sister, was in the Thornton car, was treated at the hospital for bruises on the face and a sprained ankle. She was discharged later. Mrs. Burdette Chapman, of 2225 Walnut Boulevard, Ashtabula, Ohio, a passenger in the Hyer car, received a bruised right shoulder, sprained right ankle and brush burns. Her husband, also in the Hyer car, was uninjured.

IMPORTANT GARDEN MEET
In keeping with the present garden season the local Victory Garden Committee in cooperation with O. C. Tritt, county farm agent, announces another timely meeting on gardening. This will be conducted by W. B. Nissley, vegetable gardening specialist from State College. Mr. Nissley will talk on methods of mulching and cultivation needed in the garden from now to maturity, and will also bring out the timely topic of crops which may still be planted in order to replace early maturing crops. The meeting will be held on Wednesday, July 15th, at 7:00 p. m. at the South Side Victory Gardens back of the old brewery.

Mr. and Mrs. Clair Marshall and daughter Gussie, who were injured a week ago in an automobile accident near Garland, in which two small Marshall children, David and Eugene, lost their lives, were discharged from the Warren General Hospital Saturday and removed to the home of relatives in State College.

The family, who formerly resided at Blooming Valley, near Meadville, were enroute to their new home in Wellsboro when the accident occurred.

Still in the hospital here are George Geer, 64, of Barnes, and L. H. Warner, 58, also of Barnes, operator of the car which collided with the Marshall machine. The condition of Geer, who has a fractured jaw and other injuries, was reported as good today. Warner, who has fractures of the right shoulder blade, left arm and upper jaw, is reported as fairly good.

Date for the inquest into the deaths of the two Marshall children has not been set, pending the recovery of those injured in the accident. Coroner Ed C. Lowrey has impaneled a jury, however.

Arthur Pryor, the band master, conducted his first band when he was 21 years old at Denver
